- 1 Reason for prayer: Eph 3:10-12 – namely that it is God’s plan for the church to make known His wisdom to the heavenly rulers. This was brought about through the work of Christ in redemption. In Christ we have boldness and confidence because of our faith in Him.
 - 2 An understanding that God is the true Father of all, and especially of the Church
 - 3 Insert here whatever request/challenge/issue someone is asking for or facing.
 - 4 If the person you’re praying for is an unbeliever, pray that Christ would dwell in their heart for the first time. If the person is a believer, pray that Christ, who already dwells in their heart, would dwell more fully and completely—having access to every part of their lives.
 - 5 Pray that the love of Christ would be what grounds them and motivates them. Pray for love (agape) would be their foundation for what they think, what they do, and how they proceed.
 - 6 This person is not alone in their struggle. They belong to a larger family of saints (those who have been declared holy and righteous by God). Pray that they feel the mutual communion of the saints around them and not feel alone or lonely.
 - 7 Answers to prayer are for God’s glory and for the glory of the Church, the Bride of Christ. Pray that this person keeps this is view in whatever request they are asking.
